Mrs. Johnson Apparently in Runoff

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — State Rep. Marion Crank of Foreman said Wednesday he already is laying plans for the Aug. 13 runoff even though he doesn't know his opponent.

Crank led the ticket in the Democratic gubernatorial primary Tuesday.

It appeared his runoff opponent would be Mrs. Virginia Johnson who held a slight lead over Ted Boswell.

"We're so happy to No. 1, it doesn't matter who is in the race," Crank said. He said he had no way of knowing who would run a stronger race against him.

He said, however, his campaign plans for the runoff would differ very little no matter who is in the runoff with him. Crank said he planned to hold several regional rallies.

Crank said, though, that if his runoff opponent is Mrs. Johnson, he would run against her as if she were a man. He said whether he directed any part of his runoff campaign against Mrs. Johnson's husband, Jim, would depend on Johnson's activities.

Crank said he had received no offers of support from any of the defeated candidates nor had he solicited it, yet, but that he hoped to talk to them soon about supporting him in the runoff.

He said that because of the uncertainty over who will be in the runoff with him "now is not the time to talk."

Crank denied that he was backed by the "machine" of former Gov. Orval Faubus.

"I thought Mr. Faubus had tried to give a little help to (Bruce) Bennett," Crank said. Bennett ran fourth in the primary. He said if he did have the backing of the "machine," he "might have gotten a few more votes."

Crank said he would imagine his campaign expenses had exceeded $100,000, but that he had seen no figures.

With two boxes not reported until Friday, the unofficial primary election tally showed Crank with 106,764 votes, Mrs. Johnson with 85,774 and Boswell with 85,269.

The other candidates and their totals: Bruce Bennett 64,627, Frank Whitbeck 61,671 and Clyde E. Byrd 10,291.

One of the missing boxes was in Searcy County, where officials said it contained only 18 votes, all absentee. The other box was in Newton County, and officials there said the box contained no more than 80 votes.

Holly Grove Plans Revival

Holly Grove Methodist Church will start a revival meeting Sunday, August 4, at 7:30 p.m., with the Rev. M. E. Scott bringing the message nightly. The public is invited.

Why The Embarrassment?

For some reasons or other Jim Nabors, the young actor from Sylacauga who plays Gomer Pyle, made news when he was overcome by the temptation to buy a Rolls Royce. "Me and my sisters — Ruth and Freddie — used to walk every place in Sylacauga or hitch rides. I fell in love with this car and I just felt I had to have it."

So he bought it. But not without considerable embarrassment for having indulged himself in such a luxurious fashion. The question is, why should he feel guilty? He's hit it big in the entertainment business, made a lot of money. Why shouldn't he be able to buy a Rolls Royce?

Perhaps he's afraid that his cosmopolitan tastes might damage his folksy image. More than room, the coach, it is true, provides seating for three persons, but it is cold, hard and forbidding compared to the deep luxury of a Rolls Royce. "An attitude widely held in this country (but almost nowhere else) is that it may not always be sinful to have a lot of money, but it is vaguely sinful to enjoy it and use it for anything but the most forlornly sinful to do so in public."

Poverty Money Used to Arm Street Gangs in Chicago Is Cut Off

By JAMES R. POLK
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — Jeff Fort, No. 2 leader of a Chicago street gang that became the object of a Senate controversy involving sex and drugs, was indicted today on a charge of contempt of Congress.

Fort is vice president of the Blackstone Rangers, one of two Chicago gangs that had been the object of an antipoverty rehabilitation program. The $927,000 program has been cut off from its last trickle of federal dollars in the wake of the controversy.

Atty. Gen. Ramsey Clark announced the federal grand jury indictment today that resulted from Fort's refusal to answer questions about the antipoverty program put to him by the Senate investigations subcommittee. He stalked from the hearing after telling senators only his name.

A Justice Department spokesman said each of the two counts in the indictment—Fort is accused of refusing to testify on two separate occasions—carries a maximum penalty of a year's imprisonment and a $1,000 fine.

The Office of Economic Opportunity ruled Wednesday against any extension for the skeleton staff remaining from the $927,000 project. The move signaled almost certain disapproval of a separate application for $1 million still pending to resume the program.

Senate hearings produced testimony that Fort had "absolute proof" that Marion Crank campaign literature was included in some absentee ballots mailed from Lawrence County.

He said the council has evidence that "campaign material had been sent along with absentee ballots as has been done previously" in Conway County.

He said about 416 absentee ballots had been mailed out for the first primary in Lawrence County.

Schoenfeld said Lawrence County Clerk Don Hardaway had taken steps to prevent further occurrences. Schoenfeld indicated that Hardaway had been unaware that the cards had been placed with absentee ballot material.

He said the council "does not take as lenient a view of the Conway County matter as it does the matter in Lawrence County."

Literature for Crank Mailed With Ballots

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Nathan L. Schoenfeld, a member of the board of the Election Research Council, said Wednesday there was evidence that campaign material had been sent out with absentee ballots in two Arkansas counties.

Schoenfeld said he had "absolute proof" that Marion Crank campaign literature was included in some absentee ballots mailed from Lawrence County.

Feels Chair Will Be Gained When Daughter Goes Off to College

By JOY STILLEY
NEW YORK (AP) — When our youngest goes off in pursuit of a higher education this fall, we won't be losing a daughter—we'll be gaining one-third of a chair.

Because our living room is crammed with such objects as wall-to-wall bookcases, electric toasters and other assorted furniture not made for sitting purposes, there is space for only one easy chair in the entire area.

The coach, it is true, provides seating for three persons, but it is cold, hard and forbidding compared to the deep luxury of a Rolls Royce. Criticism Won't Change Steel Hike

By JOE KROVSKY
Associated Press Writer
PITTSBURGH (AP) — The Pittsburgh Steel Co. announced a general price increase today as smaller producers appeared to be ready to join the price hike parade started Wednesday by the nation's three biggest steel firms.

Pittsburgh Steel, ranked 14th in production, said it was increasing prices from $3 to $10 a ton Aug. 8 on all its products except two types of pipe.

Other producers hinted strongly that they would follow the lead of the big three—U.S. Steel, Bethlehem and Republic, which raises prices Wednesday only a day after United Steelworkers union won its richest contract ever.

Despite sharp criticism from President Johnson, the steel firms indicated the price hikes will stand.

Johnson called Bethlehem's nearly 5 per cent across-the-board hike "unreasonable" and said at a Washington news conference that it "just should not be permitted to stand."

Edmund F. Martin, Bethlehem's chairman and chief executive officer, replied: "Our announcement . . . speaks for itself. In our opinion, our price increase is absolutely necessary and we do not intend to withdraw it."

It was the first confrontation between the federal government and the steel industry since 1962 when President John F. Kennedy forced the rollback of a general price hike.

Johnson, asked if he planned "any instruments" to compel a rollback, said, "We urge them and reason with them and counsel with them and plead with them not to increase prices."

Republic Steel followed Bethlehem and said it would hike its principal steel mill products 4.5 per cent and said the new labor contract was the reason. The Bethlehem and Republic increases are effective Aug. 8.

Manslaughter in Spa Death

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP) — A Carthage, Tex., man was charged Wednesday with involuntary manslaughter in the death of Jack Gunter, 53, of Hot Springs.

Police said Robbie La Grone, about 45, was being held under police guard in a local hospital where he was being treated for injuries received in a fight early Wednesday morning on a city street here.

Officers said when they arrived on the scene, they found La Grone and Gunter lying on the pavement. Gunter, affiliated with the Vapors Club here, died Wednesday afternoon in a Little Rock hospital.

La Grone's bond was $2,500.

Bill Exempting Postal Workers to Johnson

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House sent to President Johnson Thursday a bill exempting most postal employees from the congressional order for a cutback in the number of government workers.

Without the exemption, the Post Office Department said it would have to end Saturday mail deliveries and curtail other service starting this weekend.

The only postal functions not exempt would be the headquarters office in Washington with 1,930 employees and regional offices which now have about 3,200 workers. The department has about 730,000 employees altogether.

Postmaster General W. Marvin Watson told Congress his department could not handle a personnel cutback because of the increase in its workload.

He said if his agency was not excluded from the mandate, he would have to cut back mail service and close some post offices. He said eventually it would mean a cutback to four-day mail delivery.

Despite cries of blackmail, Congress exempted the Post Office Department.

Citing a Massive New Enemy Attack, Johnson Denounces Steel Hike

By FRANCES LEWINE
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson says the nation can expect a massive attack by the enemy in Vietnam and possible economic consequences "at home over a steel price boost."

The President says he is discouraged over the infiltration and troop buildup by North Vietnam in the South and lack of response, so far, to the U.S. bombing restraint.

But, he expressed hope the enemy will make the restraint and that the attack, which he said appears imminent against major South Vietnamese cities "could be aborted."

He cautioned Hanol that the U.S. might have to act promptly with additional military measures if they "put our men in danger."

Calling an impromptu news conference in the Cabinet Room of the White House late Wednesday afternoon, the President issued a blast at Bethlehem Steel.

Humphrey in Praise of Few Policies

By CARL P. LEUBSDORF
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey has delivered one of his strongest endorsements of the Johnson administration only a few hours after he seemingly was at odds with some of the President's Vietnam policies.

"I do not want to run for the presidency by turning my back upon those who have stood with me and repudiating the good works of my party, my president and his predecessors," Humphrey told a $500-a-plate fund-raising dinner Wednesday night.

This followed an earlier Wednesday speech when he said in connection with Vietnam that "I'm trying to make my views compatible with the government of the United States—and I'm having a little trouble with that."

In the first speech he spoke to the convention of the National Association of Counties. His talk bore little resemblance to the advance text, but he said he stood by it as a statement of his position.

In it, Humphrey said South Vietnam "should be run by the people who have lived there, not by Hanol or Washington."

"This means free elections," he said, "elections in which all can vote and all can run for office, with guarantees against

Allied Force Hit Heavily by Enemy

By GEORGE ESPER
Associated Press Writer
SAIGON (AP) — An enemy force inflicted heavy casualties of 16 killed and 39 wounded on two companies of South Vietnamese irregulars led by U.S. Green Beret men in a battle close to the Cambodian border, the Saigon government reported today.

South Vietnamese headquarters said only four enemy bodies were found after the hard battle Wednesday 65 miles northwest of Saigon on one of the enemy routes from the Cambodian border to the capital.

All the casualties in the government force apparently were Vietnamese irregulars. There was no report of any among the U.S. Special Forces men who train and lead the irregulars.

Initial reports indicated the government force was ambushed, although military spokesmen did not say so. They said two companies of irregulars—perhaps 200 men or more—clashed with an enemy force of unknown size along the border. The spokesman said the government troops destroyed 150 fortified positions in the battle area.

Tay Ninh Province, where the battle occurred, is believed to be the major staging area for the big Communist offensive which allied intelligence men expect the Viet Cong and North Vietnamese to launch against Saigon in the next two months.

The North Vietnamese 9th Infantry Division and two independent regiments are said to be at secret base camps in the area preparing for the Communist offensive.

America's biggest bombers, Air Force B52s, have been attacking the enemy camp areas in Tay Ninh Province daily with thousands of tons of bombs. The eight-jet bombers flew seven more missions against base camps, troop concentrations and antiaircraft positions in the area near the border.

In another critical sector, the defense of South Vietnam's northern frontier was stiffened by 4,500 fresh American troops flown from a Colorado base in an airlift of 71 Air Force C141 Starlifters. Scores of armored personnel carriers for the troops came by sea.

The U.S. Command announced the arrival of the 5th Mechanized Infantry Division's 1st Brigade. A spokesman said the troops were flown from Ft. Carson, Colo. to Da Nang, and then immediately deployed to positions below the eastern end of the demilitarized zone.

Showers Hit in Northern Arkansas

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS Showers from a cold front dampened north Arkansas early today but most of the state remained under partly cloudy to clear skies with no precipitation.

The front was expected to cross the state today, accompanied by heavy thundershowers activity, but a shift in winds kept the front on the state's northern border.

Rockefeller Backers Claim Progress

By JACK BELL AP Political Writer MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP) — Buoyed by a favorable national poll, backers of Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller claimed progress today in their battle to hold favorite sons in line against any early ballot decision on the presidential nomination at next week's GOP convention.

A Louis Harris poll that showed the New York governor could defeat the leading Democratic contenders and that Richard M. Nixon would lose to them gave the Rockefeller camp new ammunition in its effort to ward off a possible convention blitz attempt by the former vice president.

In this connection, one of Rockefeller's strategists reported that Gov. James A. Rhodes of Ohio had made a commitment to hold his 56-vote state delegation intact behind his favorite son candidacy through the first two ballots.

Supporters of Nixon scoffed at this claim. They noted that Rhodes has said his course will be determined by a state caucus before the convention opens Monday. They said they have what they called reliable indications that Rhodes prefers Nixon.

The Rockefeller stalwarts got cheering news in the Harris survey to bolster their efforts to mitigate effects of a Gallup Poll which indicated Nixon could defeat the leading Democratic contenders in November while their candidate would run only about even with them.

Harris reported his survey showed that the New York governor leads both Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey and Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy, D-Minn., while Nixon trails both Democrats.

Corp. for its announced 5 per cent across-the-board price increase effective Aug. 8, the first such blanket price hike in the industry since President John F. Kennedy's confrontation with the steel titans in 1962.

Pointing to the possible inflationary consequences from pricing decision he said could affect the entire economy, Johnson declared: "Inflation for steel is inflation for the nation."

Johnson said he hoped other steel companies "will not join this parade" and that competitive factors would then "bring about a readjustment on the action the Bethlehem company has taken."

The price boost came before representatives of industry and the United Steelworkers Union could sign a new labor contract expected to raise wages and fringe benefits by at least six per cent a year over the next three years.

More Men Are Killed in Vietnam War

SAIGON (AP) — The number of men killed in action in Vietnam—Americans, South Vietnamese and enemy—increased last week although a general lull continued in the ground fighting.

The U.S. Command, in its weekly summary today, said 193 Americans were killed compared with 157 in the previous week.

The number of wounded dropped sharply, however, to 1,086 last week from 2,014 a week earlier. Of those wounded last week, 580 were hospitalized.

U.S. officials said there was no precise explanation for the increase in combat deaths and the decrease in the number of wounded.

The report increased the total of U.S. casualties since Jan. 1, 1961, to 26,290 killed and 165,130 wounded.

South Vietnamese headquarters reported 243 government troops were killed last week compared with 156 a week earlier.

The allied command reported 1,146 enemy were killed last week, but U.S. headquarters noted as usual that this figure was "subject to adjustment."

It added that the enemy death toll for the previous week had been increased from 1,248 to 1,549.

Alexander, Files in District 1

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Bill Alexander, 35, an attorney from Osceola, will face Jack Files, also 35 and an attorney, in the Aug. 13 runoff for Democratic nomination for Congress in the 1st District, according to complete but unofficial returns from Tuesday's primary.

Files held a slim edge in the returns over Dr. Ralph R. Ratton, a Paragould dentist.

With all 543 precincts reporting, the vote showed Alexander with 31,516, Files 12,007 and Ratton with 11,896.

Mayor Clyde Andrews of Marianna, who was running close to Files during early returns Tuesday night, slipped behind when Clay and Greene counties reported to boost Ratton's total. Andrews had 10,674 votes.

The other candidates and their totals: Henry D. Akins of Wynne, 7,400, Lee Ward of Jonesboro, 7,287, Eugene T. Ridgeway of Newport, 4,568 and Carroll "Bull" Durham of Wynne, 667.

The counties will canvass their vote totals Friday, and Kelly Bryant, secretary of state, is expected to certify the results next week.

Files, who lives at the Hunter community near Brinkley, declined Thursday to make a victory statement. An aide of the candidate said, however, that Dr. Ratton had called the Files campaign organization and congratulated them.

Alexander did legal research for a federal district judge at Memphis before resuming his private law practice.

Files has been an aide to former Gov. Orval E. Faubus, Rep. Wilbur D. Mills, D-Ark., and Sen. J. W. Fulbright, D-Ark.

Alexander carried Craighead, Crittenden, Cross, Lawrence, Phillips, Poinsett, Randolph, St. Francis and Mississippi counties. Files carried Monroe and Woodruff counties and Ratton carried Clay and Greene counties. Ridgeway carried Jackson County and Andrews carried Lee County.

Cong Insists on End to Bombings

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER AP Special Correspondent PARIS (AP) — North Vietnamese diplomats participating in the Paris peace talks are dropping hints that the talks may fail unless President Johnson ends the bombing of North Vietnam.

U.S. officials regard the veiled threats as a part of the drive North Vietnam has made since the talks began to build up massive public opinion against the U.S. position that North Vietnam must give something in return.

The drive was intensified Wednesday after the North Vietnamese apparently decided that statements by Secretary of State Dean Rusk made speculation about an early change in U.S. bombing policy untenable.

Rusk said on Tuesday that the U.S. government would have to be told what North Vietnam would do before it could end the bombing.

A North Vietnamese spokesman also introduced a new element into the conflict by implying there might be some split over bombing policy between Rusk and Ambassador W. Averell Harriman, the chief U.S. negotiator at the Paris talks.

The spokesman said Harriman did not speak in Rusk's defense at the meeting Wednesday.

U.S. officials said lengthy statements Harriman made on the reasons for U.S. bombing of North Vietnam constituted a reply to the attack on Rusk by Ha Van Lau of North Vietnam.

Television and Radio

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Don "Red" Barry, a wrestler turned character actor, slumped in the hot midday sun behind a plaster of paris boulder on the Screen Gems backlot, rehearsing the scene in which he, a villain, gets his comeuppance. Shots were fired by a member of the technical crew.

Barry writhed and the director shouted, "Get ready with the blood."

On the sidelines in the shade, Don Murray, one of the two stars of the show, "The Outcasts," leaned back in his folding chair and talked about the new ABC series—his first regular television assignment.

"Well, yes, this one is based on personal relationships," he said, "since I play a former slave owner and Otis (Young) plays a former slave. But it's still a violent, action Western."

A couple of months ago, Murray said, "they started to cut down on the number of people killed, and cut out some of the details of blood and gore."

"But we still have lots of fights and I play the kind of guy who gets drunk and is interested in women. I've lost a lot of horses in the 11 episodes we've finished—they've been shot, broken a leg, died from thirst and, in one episode, got bitten by a rattlesnake."

All this, presumably, makes "The Outcasts" one of those so-called "adult Westerns," but with a contemporary television switch that has a white man and a black man in prickly partnership as bounty hunters.

Murray, a stage and film star with credits such as "A Hatful of Rain" and "The Hoodlum Priest"—which he wrote, produced and in which he starred—said he had never wanted to be involved with a television series before because he thought it would be detrimental to his film career.

"I've changed my mind," he said. "Now I think it will be helpful. If you do good work and if the audience likes you and identifies with you, it will make the audience want to see more of you."

Acting in a Western is a kick, he said. "Like being a kid again and getting paid for it." He added that in a Western with more action than talk, there isn't much of the dreary business of learning lines.

"I'd hate being in one of those court room series and have to study pages and pages of speeches."

The teaming of black and white man in the Old West permits the series to inject new twists into time-honored plots.

In one episode, Young, whose character Jamal David has been made acting sheriff of a small town, walks into a restaurant full of empty tables and

Wedding Vows Are Repeated

MRS. WILLIAM OSCAR RIVES

Miss Judy Nell Humphries of Shreveport, and Lt. (j.g.) William Oscar Rives of Ruston were united in holy matrimony July 20 at 8 p.m. at the Creswell Street Church of Christ in Shreveport. Mr. Gussie Lambert performed the ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Truman Crowell Humphries of Shreveport, and the granddaughter of Mrs. W. B. Ruggles, and the late W. B. Ruggles. The groom's parents are Mrs. and Mrs. William Reggie Rives of Ruston, La.

The ceremony was performed amid a setting of burning tapers and Grecian columns holding oval designs of white pom-pom chrysanthemums, stock and gladioli. Candelights and cousins of the bride, Miss Debra Irvin of Little Rock, and Murry Ruggles of Arkansas, and Murry Ruggles of North Little Rock, who sang "The Sweetest Story Ever one lone dimer. He asks for food and the proprietor explains that he just hasn't the room to serve him.

"I react," said Young, a TV newcomer. "I play a guy with a short fuse. As a matter of fact, I react to this series. I've waited 14 years in show business for this chance, and I don't want anything to hurt it."

NBC plans a special two-hour episode of "Ironside" on Sept. 26, pre-empting "Daniel Boone." It crowds into one program a story about surgery to see whether the sleuth can regain the use of his legs.

The show, a week after NBC premieres its new season, arrives during the debut week of both ABC and CBS, and will conflict with the season premieres of CBS' "Hawaii Five-O" and ABC's "Bewitched" and "That Girl."

Following the ceremony the bride's parents entertained with a reception at the Woman's Club. Assisting in serving were cousins of the bride, Miss Nell Churchwell and Miss Mary Allen, of Hope.

The couple will be at home in California until Lt. Rives is released from the services in August, after which they will make their home in Ruston.

Others attending from Hope were Mrs. Sidney Churchwell and Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Allen.

Nothing Stays These Couriers

SANTA, Idaho (AP) — Neither snow, nor rain, nor heat, nor gloom of night, nor an economy move stays these couriers from the swift completion of their appointed rounds to Santa.

The Santa Post Office was one of many across the nation recently scheduled for closing.

There was an immediate outcry from Idaho officials, who noted that thousands of children each year send Christmas letters to Santa. The letters are answered by volunteers among the 100 townfolk.

Rep. James McClure, R-Idaho, suggested that maybe the Post Office Department had something against kids.

Tuesday, Sen. Frank Church, D-Idaho, announced in Washington that the department had changed its mind.

Santa is alive and well in northern Idaho.

Life In Arkansas

Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Faubus of Baldwin (Washington County) probably could claim the bean growing championship if there is such a title.

Faubus, who is a first cousin of former Gov. Orval Faubus, grew a New Guinea bean last summer that was 60 inches long and weighed 15 pounds.

If Faubus' name had been Jack, right away there would have been doubt, but it's the truth, and the Faubuses have a patch which should begin producing more of the king-size beans in about a week.

Mrs. Faubus said that big bean was too tough to eat, but they used it to seed more plants. She said they had one other bean which was 58 inches long and weighed 13 pounds. She said the beans from about 12 inches on up with the shorter ones being more tender. "I like the flavor better when they're short," she said.

Mrs. Faubus described the beans as being more like squash than anything else. "I slice them and cook them like squash and they taste like squash to me, only they have a smoother taste," she said. She said she serves them steamed and fried, but said she liked them steamed better than any other way.

The giant beans grow from a seed that is flat and about a quarter inch long. "It doesn't take them long to grow," she said. "They grow fast, depending on the rain. They like a lot of water."

She said she first ordered the seeds from a catalog, but now extracts the seeds from the GRAND RAPIDS, Min. (AP) — Persistent Indian trackers Tuesday night found an 8-year-old girl and her 4-year-old brother after they had been lost for six days and five nights in desolate bush country in northern Manitoba.

Although scratched and bitten by insects, little Jill and Kirby Sinclair appeared to be in good condition. They were taken to the radar station at Gypsumville, on the Winnipeg-Grand Rapids highway, for doctors to examine them.

Tigers Just Show Heels to the Rest

By DICK COUCH
Associated Press Sports Writer
Denny McLain and the Detroit Tigers are showing nothing but their heels to nine American League laggards. But there's still plenty of catch-up left in the also-rans ... when they tangle with each other.

While the front-running Tigers loped past Washington 4-0 Wednesday night for McLain's 21st victory of the season, the Oakland Athletics, Chicago White Sox and New York Yankees were winning games on ninth-inning comebacks.

The A's completed a doubleheader sweep by overtaking California 4-3 on Ted Kubiak's two-run triple in the ninth after winning the opener 4-1 on a three-run homer by Mike Hersherberger in the eighth.

The White Sox spotted Minnesota an 8-1 lead, then fought back behind an 18-hit attack and finally felled the Twins 12-8 with six runs in the ninth. The Yankees pushed over five unearned runs with two out in the ninth for a 7-3 triumph over Boston.

Baltimore trimmed Cleveland 4-2 on Elrod Hendricks' two-run homer in another AL game.

Cincinnati and Pittsburgh divided a National League twin bill, the Reds taking the first game 8-2, the Pirates the second 10-1. St. Louis edged Philadelphia 3-2, Los Angeles bounced San Francisco 6-3 and Chicago whipped Houston 6-1 in NL single games.

McLain, 21, scattered four hits and struck out nine as Detroit maintained its seven-game spread over second-place Baltimore.

Dick McAuliffe and Al Kaline set the offensive pace for the Tigers. McAuliffe cracked a single, two doubles and his 14th homer, and scored all the runs. Kaline contributed two doubles, a single and two RBIs.

In the nightcap at Oakland the A's fell behind 3-1 in the seventh when California's Tom Satriano and Jim Fregosi slugged scoring singles. John Donaldson's infield hit scored Rick Monday in the bottom of the seventh, but the A's still were one run down with one out in the ninth.

Then Jim Gosger walked and Bert Campaneris singled, chasing reliever Marty Pattin, and Kubiak greeted Angels' ace Jim McGlothlin with a drive off the center field fence, scoring the tying and winning runs.

Hersherberger unloaded his second homer of the year following a walk and Sal Bando's single in the eighth inning of the twilight game. The blast broke up a pitching duel between winner Catfish Hunter and Angels rookie Bill Harrelson.

Minnesota left the White Sox on the ropes with a six-run volley in the fourth inning, but they bounced back with four in the sixth and went into the ninth trailing 8-6.

Southpaw Ron Perranoski got the first out, but Tommy Davis, Diane Josephson, Leon Wagner and Ken Berry singled for two runs. After a ground out and intentional walk filled the bases, Tim Cullen laced a three-run double off Al Worthington and scored on Woody Held's single, nailing the Sox' fifth victory in their last six starts.

Ken Harrelson drove in two runs with a single and his 25th homer, helping Boston's Gary Bell take a 3-2 lead over the Yankees into the ninth.

But Horace Clarke doubled home two runs after a two-out error by third baseman Jay Foy filled the bases. Bill Robinson punched a run-scoring single and first baseman George Scott belted Joe Pepitone's grounder as two more Yankees crossed the plate.

Hendricks' two-run homer off Sonny Siebert in the sixth inning gave the Orioles a 3-2 edge at Cleveland and they added an insurance run in the ninth on relief pitcher Gene Brabender's bases-loaded sacrifice fly. Brabender rescued winner Tom Phoebus from an eighth inning jam and stopped the Indians in the ninth.

Pro Football to Start Exhibitions

By MIKE RECHT
Associated Press Sports Writer
Pro football has passed another cutdown date with several minor trades, many rookies sent packing and a few star holdouts, star injuries and star retirements. And now it's away we go with the start of the exhibition season tonight.

The Washington Redskins play Houston under the Astro-dome and the New Orleans Saints meet the Los Angeles Rams in Anaheim, kicking off the preseason schedule, followed by the College All-Star struggle against Green Bay Friday night.

Four more games are set for Saturday: the Chicago Bears and Dallas at Canton, Ohio, in the afternoon, and Baltimore at Oakland, San Francisco at San Diego and Kansas City at Cincinnati at night.

The Redskins will be without Sonny Jurgensen, the National Football League's 1967 passing champion who is recuperating from arm surgery. Veteran Jim Nino will and rookie Harry Theofiles will replace him while last year's Heisman Trophy winner, Gary Beban, plays for the College All-Stars.

The Oilers, last season's Eastern Division champs in the American League, are supposed to be stronger with quarterback Pete Beathard starting the season with them.

A crowd of 40,000 is expected for the first football game in the Astro-dome, and they'll see no extra points kicked. The teams will test a new system in which all extra points must be made by passing or running.

The Rams rule the favorite over the Saints, despite the absence of key personnel. Defensive end Deacon Jones and offensive end Jack Snow are involved in contract disputes and defensive end Lamar Lundy and linebacker Maxie Baughan are recuperating from off-season surgery.

Coach George Allen also said he won't play runnings backs Dick Bass and Tommie Mason in order not to risk injury. The Saints, despite a faulty offensive line, have increased fire power in a rejuvenated Jim Taylor at fullback and quarterback Bill Kilmer throwing to newly-acquired Dave Parks and Monty Stickles.

John Gordy, Detroit guard who led the recent threatened player strike, returned to camp Wednesday, but still has not signed his contract.

At the same time, the Bears

Packers Are After Third Straight

CHICAGO (AP) — The College All-Stars, as Coach Norm Van Brocklin says, probably are "apprehensive" about tackling the Green Bay Packers in the 35th All-Star football game Friday night.

"But if they play football and find out Green Bay is like everybody else, we'll be all right," said Van Brocklin, a hard-bitten product of the pro ranks making his All-Star coaching debut.

Van Brocklin, former coach of the Minnesota Vikings and once a star National Football League quarterback, will send an able crew of 50 collegiate stars of 1967 against the giants of the northland.

Led by a pair of talented quarterbacks, Gary Beban of UCLA and Greg Landry of Massachusetts, the All-Stars may avert a third straight shutout by the Packers.

But the odds-makers tab the Packers a 19-point favorite to hand the collegians their 24th setback against only 9 victories and 2 ties in the historic series sponsored by Chicago Tribune Charities, Inc.

"I suspect our kids are apprehensive about this game, but I have a feeling they came to play," said Van Brocklin, whose Vikings never were shutout, won twice and dropped two squeakers to the Packers in 12 meetings.

The former Los Angeles Rams and Philadelphia Eagles quarterback said he would not announce any starting lineups for the contest to be played before an estimated 60,000 in Soldier Field.

"They are All Stars and everybody will play," said Van Brocklin, adding he intended to platoon Beban and Landry at quarterback and that both would see a lot of action.

Not only have the All-Stars been blanked—27-0 and 38-0 the past two years by the Packers—but they haven't won this game since 1963 when they tripped the Packers 20-17.

There is no question any All-Star success must come through the air, even though Van Brocklin has a burly running pair in Larry Csonka of Syracuse and Lee White of Weber State, both 240-pounders.

If Beban and Landry can beat the rushes of such packers as Willie Davis, Henry Jordan, Ron Kostelnik and Lionel Aldridge and the sticky Green Bay secondary, they have receivers who can go all the way.

The game will be telecast nationally by ABC at 9:30 EDT. There will be no radio broadcast.

Amarillo in Victory Over Travelers

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Amarillo scored two runs in the 10th inning and grabbed a marathon three hour and 42 minute battle from the Arkansas Travelers 7-5 Wednesday night in the Texas League.

Amarillo scored the winning run off of Joe Hamande. Jose Morales opened the 10th with a double to center and after Bob Holbert walked, pinch-hitter Jim Mallon singled to right to break the tie. After another walk John Marsden hit an infield single to score the insurance run.

At Memphis, San Antonio, taking advantage of six Memphis errors, completed a sweep of their three-game Texas League series with a 7-4 triumph Wednesday night. The San Antonio Missions put together four singles around a Memphis miscue for four runs and a 5-2 lead in the sixth inning.

John Hairston homered for San Antonio in the eighth. Amarillo 000 000 000 2-7 11 2 Ark'sas 000 040 010 0-5 7 1 Reynolds, Scott (5), Burgess (6), Welsch (8), Quimby (10) and Morales; Martin, Newton (6), Cosman (6), Hamande (9) and Stone. W — Welsch (1-2), L — Hamande (6-5).

Nicklaus, Palmer Head Western Open

By CHARLES CHAMBERLAIN
Associated Press Sports Writer

CHICAGO (AP) — Defending champion Jack Nicklaus and Arnold Palmer, winner in 1961 and 1963, try to overcome their victory shyness of this year in the $130,000 Western Open Golf Tournament starting today.

Nicklaus has not been in the winner's circle on the 1968 PGA tour but still is ninth on the money list with $69,428. Palmer, trying to lick putting woes, has won only the Hope Classic while holding 10th place with $68,883.

Nicklaus, competing in only 14 of 31 PGA tournaments this year, is in his longest drought. His last victory was in the Sahara Invitational last October.

But the Big Bear may be ready to cut loose in the Western, which provides a $26,000 top prize. In Wednesday's pro-am he matched par 71 over the heavily wooded Olympia Fields course. Palmer, meanwhile, struggled in with a 77.

Burt Yancey, also seeking his first victory this season birdied the last two holes in the dusk to take the pro-am with a sparkling 66, only a stroke off the official course record set by the late Lawson Little.

Tommy Aaron, with birdies on three of the final four holes, posted a 67. Dick Crawford was next with 68 while R. H. Sikas and Chuck Courtney had 69.

One of the favorites is leading money winner Tom Weiskopf, who has captured titles this year at San Diego and Flint, Mich., finished second twice, took the pro-am with a sparkling 66, only a stroke off the official course record set by the late Lawson Little.

Weiskopf's effort in the pro-am was a 73. Also included in this bracket were Julius Boros, winner of the recent PGA at age 48; Doug Sanders, Western runner-up last year; U.S. Open champion Lee Trevino, Bob Charles and Bob Lunn.

U.S. Divers Predicting Victory

LINCOLN, Neb. (AP) — "I think we'll win the Olympics again, but the foreign divers are improving more rapidly than we are," says veteran Dick Smith of Phoenix, Ariz., coach of the U.S. Men's Olympic diving team.

Bernie Wrightson, one of Smith's top pupils, won the men's 3-meter springboard diving crown Wednesday, opening the 18th National AAU Outdoor Swimming and Diving Championships.

Cynthia Potter, 17, a lightly-regarded little blonde from Houston, Tex., was a surprise winner in women's 1-meter springboard.

Cardinals Continue to Widen Lead

By ED SCHUYLER JR.
Associated Press Sports Writer

July 1976—the month the United States declared its independence. July 1968—the month the St. Louis Cardinals freed themselves from the rest of the National League.

The Cardinals began the month with a 5-1 victory over Los Angeles and a 6½-game lead over second-place Atlanta.

They ended it Wednesday night with a 3-2 triumph over Philadelphia and an almost insurmountable 14½-game bulge over runner-up Cincinnati.

In making the Fourth of July firecracker look like a real fizzle, the Cardinals ripped off 24 victories in 30 games and they didn't care how they did it.

Take Wednesday night's game against Philadelphia.

Lou Brock singled and stole second in the seventh inning. Julian Javier bunted and pitcher Woody Fryman threw him out, with Brock going to third. But Brock didn't stop there, he kept right on running and beat first baseman Bill White's throw home for what proved to be the winning run.

Atlanta edged the New York Mets 3-2, Cincinnati trounced Pittsburgh 8-2 and then was walloped 10-1 by the Pirates, Chicago topped Houston 6-1 and Los Angeles tripped San Francisco 6-3 in other National League games.

In the American League, Detroit blanked Washington 4-1, the New York Yankees topped Boston 7-3, Baltimore beat Cleveland 4-2, the Chicago White Sox outlasted Minnesota 12-8 and Oakland took California 4-1 and 4-3 in a twi-night twin bill.

Mike Shannon doubled in the first St. Louis run and Brock singled home the other. Clay Dalrymple's sacrifice fly and Richie Allen's single produced the runs for the Phillies, who have lost four straight and 15 of the last 18.

It was all Hank Aaron in Atlanta's victory over New York. The Braves slugger doubled home his club's first two runs and then snapped a 2-2 tie with an RBI single.

Cincinnati scored four runs in the first inning on singles by Pete Rose, Vada Pinson and Tony Perez, Johnny Bench's double and an error en route to its first-game victory.

Pittsburgh came back to take the nightcap with a 16-hit attack and the second triple play in the major leagues in two days.

After Lee May and Perez walked in the fourth inning, Tommy Helms lined to shortstop Gene Alley. Alley threw to second baseman Bill Mazeroski, doubling up May, and Mazeroski threw to first to get Perez.

Ron Hansen of Washington made an unassisted triple play Tuesday night against Cleveland.

Roberto Clemente hit a two-run homer and first baseman Donn Clendenon a solo shot and a triple to pace Pittsburgh's attack.

The Cubs, who slammed five home runs Tuesday, continued their heavy hitting by clouting four more against Houston. Ernie Banks hit two and now has 460 in his career. Billy Williams and Jim Hickman smacked the others.

Trailing 3-1 in the eighth, the Dodgers rallied for five runs on two hits and a series of Giant misplays. Two runs scored when Joe Gibbon uncorked a bases-loaded wild pitch and

Perry's Team Picks Up 11th Victory

Perry's Truck Stop baseball team continued its winning ways last night by turning back the Hope Bears 10 to 6.

Wayne Johnson picked up his third victory of the season and is the second winningest hurler on the team.

John Hendley was hot at the plate and pounded out four hits straight, Jim Jordan, Brint Odom, Johnson and Bill Lawrence had two hits each. Perry's record is now 11 wins against only two losses.

Baseball Hires Irvin

Pete Rose was watching a bunch of past Cincinnati stars being introduced at home plate before an "Old Timers" game and mused, "If I'm ever invited to play in one of these things, they'll expect me to come out for my intro and slide into home plate—head first." ... The thumb Pete broke just before the All-Star break diving for a fly ball is still swollen and eased in an aluminum brace—main problem he has is getting it inside his fielder's glove. ...

Shortly to be announced is the appointment of Monte Irvin, the old Giant great, as the Buddy Young of baseball, working in the commissioner's office as a liaison man with the Negro ballplayers. ...

This is booster time in the pro football camps, and Fran Tarkenton of the Giants starts the ball rolling by declaring unequivocally, "Henry Davis is the best-looking rookie I've seen in my eight years of pro ball. He's like the 300-pound bear who doesn't worry about a place to sleep—he knows they're going to make room for him somewhere." ... Davis is a 225-pound rookie guard from Grambling who can beat almost every offensive back in camp at 40 yards and is being groomed to replace Vince Costello at middle line-backer. ...

Davis also prompted owner Wellington Mara to muse, "You have to wonder about the pro scouting systems, including our own, when we wait until the 11th round to pick a boy like that." ...

Trick of fate: Ewell Blackwell, the erstwhile side-winder who came within an out of pitching no-hitters back-to-back, now makes his home in Columbia, S.C., as a sales representative ... which is where The Whip first lost the zip on his fast ball in 1948 when he pitched there in an exhibition game for the Reds, on a cold, drizzly day and hurt his arm. Blackwell actually stretched his career until 1955 when he made a couple of appearances with Kansas City. The A's got him from the Yankees, who wouldn't offer him a contract to pitch in '51. Ewell stayed out the whole year and then came back for the sole purpose of drawing his release because "I don't want to be owned by anybody, even if my arm isn't strong enough to lift a baseball." ...

Current Cincy manager Dave Bristol became a papa for the third time recently and named the heir Lance ... for Lance Alworth, the fleet flanker of the Chargers—they were neighbors for the two years Dave managed the San Diego farm club for the Reds. ...

More old-timer notes: Ted Kluszewski, with two restaurants of his own to keep the calories supplied, weighs 280 pounds now but still hasn't caught up to his two big brothers, who are over 300. ... Former Cincinnati outfielder Mike McCormick stays in shape by officiating football and basketball games in southern California. ... Duke Snider has gone to work for his old Dodger boss, Buzzie Bavasi, as a special scout for the new San Diego franchise, and without a gray hair in his head, thanks to that bottled stuff he used to peddle on TV. ...

McCarthy and Humphrey Ticket Unlikely

WASHINGTON (AP) — The chances of Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey and Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy joining to run together on the Democratic national ticket are discounted by sources in both camps.

Although the two Minnesotans, the only contenders now in sight for the Democratic presidential nomination, are miles apart over the key Vietnam issue, some Democrats have suggested that McCarthy might become Humphrey's running mate.

"This is not outside the realm of possibility," one highly placed Humphrey source says, "but it would require a major change of attitude . . . You could not have the presidential and the vice presidential candidates at marked odds on Vietnam."

McCarthy is a strong critic of the Johnson administration's Vietnam policies, while Humphrey basically has adhered to the President's position.

A McCarthy aide, echoing the comments from the Humphrey people, said such a combination would require a 180-degree turn in the views of one or the other of the contenders. If McCarthy were to change his stand, the aide said, his "supporters would consider it a repudiation of all who rallied around him."

Besides, McCarthy isn't interested in being vice president, the aide said.

Even if the Minnesota senator wanted the No. 2 spot, Humphrey sources say McCarthy is not mentioned in conversations about the second spot among persons close to the vice president.

These sources say Humphrey has made no commitments about his running mate and "there have been no overtures to anyone. The prime consideration will be on who would be highly qualified for the place."

However, two people close to Humphrey listed four names as high among the vice presidential possibilities: Sen. Fred R. Harris, D-Calif., co-manager of Humphrey's campaign; Sargent Shriver, brother-in-law of the late Sen. Robert F. Kennedy and now ambassador to France; Gov. Richard J. Hughes of New Jersey and Sen. Edmund S. Muskie of Maine.

Texarkana to Change Plan to Integrate

TEXARKANA, Ark. (AP) — The School Board here Wednesday said it has modified its freedom-of-choice desegregation plan in order to meet guidelines of the Department of Health, Education and Welfare.

The modified plan calls for the W. T. Daniels Elementary School to be closed this fall. The students will be distributed to other schools on basis of freedom of choice, excluding the Carver (Negro) Elementary School.

The board also plans to submit in March a bond issue to finance construction of a junior high. Should the issue fail, the system will close grades, seven, eight and nine at Washington (Negro) High School in 1969.

HEW had said the board's previous plan set no alternative to eliminate the dual school system by the beginning of the 1969-70 school year if a proposed bond issue failed next March.

HEW also said the plan was unclear as to the school choices students will be given after the planned closing of Daniels before the 1968-69 school year.

HEW also was critical of the district's plan to eliminate bus service from the Mandeville area to the Carver school. The department said deleting the bus service would retain vestiges of a "Negro" school and perpetuate the dual school system.

Biafra Gets Help From Americans

By HENRIETTA LEITH
Associated Press Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Americans are responding with emotion—and cash—to the plight of children reported starving on the other side of the world.

This time the victims of war are the people of Biafra, a tiny African country which seceded from Nigeria and in the ensuing fight was cut off from food and medical supplies.

Church groups and the International Red Cross long have been aware of the tragedy of the Biafrans. Millions of dollars and thousands of tons of food and other supplies have been collected around the world, much of it through U.S. churches.

The supplies, including baby food, powdered milk and eggs to meet the Biafrans' desperate need for proteins, and medical supplies, have been airlifted into Biafra's 10,000-square-mile oil de sac, surrounded by hostile territory, in a cloak-and-dagger operation—a miniature Berlin airlift.

Many tons of supplies already are in African warehouses and much more is on the way. For example, Church World Service, relief arm of the Protestant National Council of Churches, has started trucking 500,000 pounds of high-protein beans from its Saginaw, Mich., depot to Baltimore for transport by ship to Biafra.

The Biafrans get only a few plane loads of food and medicine a day because the relief planes must fly at night to avoid Nigerian government anti-aircraft fire, landing in the dark on makeshift landing strips.

Photographs showing tiny Biafrans with protruding ribs and distended bellies of malnutrition brought sudden and dramatic results.

Dr. Nwonye Otue, head of the New York office of the Republic of Biafra, gets numerous offers of aid for his countrymen.

Otue refers would-be contributors to the groups which have been helping Biafra all along—the World Council of Churches, Catholic Relief and the Red Cross—or to UNICEF, the United Nations children's fund which has started a Biafran relief program.

At Van Nuys, Calif., a public relations man, Robert Goldstein, is busy working on a $400,000 contract he obtained from the Biafran government last Dec. 1 to promote the cause of Biafra in the United States.

"At the time we wrote the contract, we didn't know the Biafrans would be starving," Goldstein says.

Part of the money was to be used to set up a "Peace for Biafra Committee," originally aimed at forwarding Biafra's political and military fight against the rest of Nigeria.

Now, Goldstein says, the committee will take on relief work for the refugees as well as the job of trying to influence American opinion toward the Biafrans.

Annual Ray Family Frogleg Supper

Some 165 persons, many of them from Texas, attended the annual Ray father-son frog leg supper and fish fry last week at the Ray Ranch on the Proving Ground.

There were three plane loads from Texas where the younger Ray operates The Barn, a restaurant, at Austin. Local folks helped the Rays go all out to entertain the visitors. This included the "Yellow Rose of Texas" by Red Goodner and his Country Boy band. Following the supper some 65 of the visitors were guests of the Hope group the following morning at breakfast at the Diamond and afterwards boarded the planes for the return trip.

As usual the event was full of fun and goodwill and even Texas University football coach Darrell Royal, a special guest, was given a warm reception. But the order of the night was froglegs and some 526 pairs were cooked for the 165 and not a one was left over. Besides that two tubs of fish (bream, bass and crappie) along with the usual potatoes, onions, bread, tomatoes, pickles etc. were consumed. So apparently everybody was hungry.

The Texas visitors include: Dr. E. C. Baum, R. W. Hoover, a rancher, Wallace Mayfield, a builder, Bob Gray, UT Athletic Department; Richard C. Baker, an attorney; J. W. Savage, a builder; Darrell Royal, UT Athletic Director and coach; Stanley Archibald, hospital equipment; D.J.I. Chierico, a dentist; Tom McCrummen, VP of the American National Bank; Jack B. Peoples, owner of Meat Purveyors, Inc.; Larry Cox, a rancher; Bob Jones, manager of Mr. Steak in Austin; Rex B. Covert, manager of a Buick Agency; S. R. Holmes, manager of Humble Oil Co. of Austin; Charles Carpenter, a realtor; Payson Hoover, loan officer for Dallas Title Co.; Jack Ray, owner of The Barn; Steve Ray, Jimmy Porterfield and Jesse Washington, chefs at the Barn; Gene Cloer, general manager of The Barn; Ray Brown, Texas Highway Engineer; Eldon Bebee, president of North Austin State Bank; Brooks Hill, a bookbinder; Walter Yates, owner of Floorcraft; Walter Carrington, a builder; John Prothro, Oil Investments; Bernie Stumfoll, Sports dealer; all the above were from Austin; from Victoria was Al Volt; from Mt. Pleasant, Manley Moore and from Texarkana, George Peck and Bobby Dowd.

Challenges Legality of War

TOPEKA, Kan. (AP) — A suit challenging legality of U.S. military action in Vietnam was dismissed Wednesday in U.S. District Court.

Judge George Templar ruled the plaintiff, Lawrence R. Vely, a school professor, lacked standing to bring such a suit, that the case presented a political question not subject to judicial action, and was in effect a suit against the United States.

One of the modern bidding developments is the "gambling three no-trump" opening. Some play this as a preempt bid with something like a solid seven-card minor and a side king. Others play it as a good hand that will make the game with any small help from partner.

South's three no-trump was one of the gambling type. He got a little help from his partner but received a lot of help from his opponents to wind up with two overtricks.

Coating on Tongue Made of Dead Cells

By WAYNE G. BRANDSTADT, M.D.

Q—What would cause a white coating on the tongue?
A—The cause is a failure to eat enough tongue-scouring foods, such as toast, raw carrots and nuts, or eating them but not chewing them enough. The coating is made up of one or more layers of dead cells.

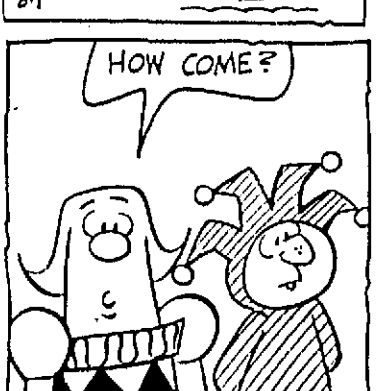

Q—I am taking one-third of a glass of diluted hydrochloric acid with vitamin B complex for a geographic tongue. Will this heal the tongue? Can one take too much of it? Can one become allergic to it?
A—Since geographic tongue is harmless and usually clears up spontaneously in two to seven days, no treatment is required. It may come back but who will know it except you, and then only when you examine your tongue in the mirror. I doubt that the remedy you are taking will influence its course. It is possible to take too much of the acid but not of vitamin B. These substances will not produce an allergy.

Q—What would cause my tongue to turn bright red at times?
A—Scarlet tongue may be caused by scarlet fever, some types of anemia, niacin deficiency or infection with candida albicans. The cause should be sought because, even though the tongue may not be sore, some of these causes require prompt treatment.

Q—My throat and tongue are often sore. I have small lumps on the back of my tongue. Is this normal?
A—These are your taste buds. You'll have to look elsewhere for the cause of the soreness.

Recall of Reagan Is Failure

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (AP) — Two California officials have termed "a colossal failure" the campaign to force a recall election to remove Gov. Ronald Reagan from office and blunt his presidential prospects.

Unofficial reports from 20 counties, including the most populous, showed 491,096 signatures on petitions to put the recall question on the Nov. 5 ballot—short of the 780,414 required by the deadline of 5 p.m. Wednesday.

The tally was far below the 850,000 signatures that organizers of the recall move claimed to have gathered in a six-month campaign conducted while Reagan's supporters were pushing him for the Republican presidential nomination.

"I've had faith in the common sense of the people of California and that faith is vindicated," Reagan told newsmen in Sacramento after flying in from Miami Beach, Fla., where he spoke to the GOP National Convention Platform Committee.

Backers of the recall had accused Reagan of incompetence. Republican Secretary of State Frank M. Jordan, the state's top election official, and GOP Lt. Gov. Robert H. Finch declared in a joint statement, "There is every indication that the recall campaign is climaxing in colossal failure."

Soviet-Czech Conference Hits Snag

By HANNS NEUERBOURG

Associated Press Writer

PRAGUE (AP) — A last-minute snag developed at the conference of Soviet and Czechoslovak leaders possibly over the wording of the final communiqué and the two sides held another night session Wednesday.

Still another meeting was expected today.

The Politburo of the Soviet Communist party and the Czechoslovak party's Presidium began meeting Monday at the little railway junction of Cierna, on the Soviet-Czechoslovak border.

The new leaders of the Czechoslovak party have been defending their moves liberalizing the party's control against Soviet demands for a return to tight control and obedience to dictates from Moscow. The meetings at first were expected to last only two days, but they continued Wednesday. The talks resumed Wednesday night after Czechoslovak sources reported they had ended and newsmen went to Cierna for a news conference at which they expected to get the conference communiqué. When they got to Cierna, they were told the news conference had been canceled.

Soviet party chief Leonid L. Brezhnev missed the conference day sessions Wednesday reportedly because of a slight illness, but informants said he attended the session Wednesday night.

Although Czechoslovak reports earlier in the conference were largely optimistic, some local observers feared that the delay could mean a serious clash of views had developed.

No Pullout Plank in the GOP Platform

By EDMOND LEBRETON

Associated Press Writer

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP) —

The Republican platform will call for a smaller U.S. role in the Vietnam war, but will say American forces should not be pulled out without a satisfactory settlement.

It will bear down hard on crime in the streets and organized underworld activity, insisting on more leeway for enforcement methods.

It will call for new approaches to the problems of poverty and deteriorating city life, with heavy emphasis on promoting ownership of homes and businesses, giving private industry incentives to train and employ ghetto dwellers and streamlining government programs.

It will deplore unbalanced budgets and inflation, holding out hope of future tax cuts.

These were among the clear indications of the mood of the Republican platform committee, which winds up its hearings today and begins writing the document the GOP presidential candidate will take to the voters in November.

A onetime major figure in this year's nomination race, Gov. George Romney of Michigan, offered recommendations for the platform ranging from a Vietnam policy to revision of labor laws.

Romey called in prepared testimony for a declaration of conscience pledging action at every level in behalf of "the legal and moral equality of citizens."

He advocated a large-scale effort to create jobs in the central cities by modifying apprenticeship and licensing requirements, setting up private urban corporations, establishing extension services to guide city dwellers somewhat in the way the agricultural extension service has helped farmers, and backing self-generated business enterprises with a national business development bank.

Romey said outdated labor laws "which feed the growth and concentration of excessive collective bargaining power in the hands of excessively powerful economic groups" must be changed. National emergency strikes should be prevented, he added, by "prohibiting the accumulation of undisciplined economic power."

In Vietnam, he said, peace at any price would be a calamity. But he said "the chief component (of U.S. policy) is an expansion of the South Vietnamese role and contraction of the American role."

The United States, he said, should work with other countries for "guaranteed neutralization of North and South Vietnam, Laos and Cambodia."

The platform-writers go to work today on a tentative draft. Some of its outlines emerged from their public and private comments and the reception accorded key testimony.

Vietnam—A broadly worded plank is shaping up that will call for efforts to end the war but stay well within the warning sounded by former President Dwight D. Eisenhower against "camouflaged surrender."

There will be pledges against permitting a similar involvement to develop unforeseen elsewhere.

While key Republicans dis-ferred widely as to how far the United States should go in either concessions of stern measures to hasten the end of the war, no candidate or faction has insisted on a particular blueprint in the platform—to the privately expressed relief of the platform writers. The statement will be general enough to allow any likely candidate to accept it and develop his own specifics as he campaigns.

Housing Bill Still in Hands of Congress

By JOE HALL

Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — The

stroke of a pen may turn President Johnson's far-reaching housing bill into law, but only future Congresses can make it a lasting reality for millions of the nation's low income families.

The government apparently will have enough money to finance the early stages of the three-year, $5.4-billion program. But even the current Congress has repeatedly slashed President Johnson's budget requests and its own authorizations.

If Congress should still be faced with war and inflation six months from now, appropriations to carry the measure through its second and third years may well be cut back to disabie Johnson's 10-year goal of 6 million new and rehabilitated homes.

The key new feature of the bill would help poor families buy homes and its $300 million outlay over the next three years would be the most generous government subsidy ever enacted for such a purpose.

The program's cost, however, is expected to increase greatly from the initial $75 million authorization.

The measure also includes new money authorizations for many existing programs seeking government subsidy ever enacted for such a purpose.

The program's cost, however, is expected to increase greatly from the initial $75 million authorization.

The measure also includes new money authorizations for many existing programs seeking to deal with problems of city slums and the impoverished.

Among these are rent subsidies, low-rent public housing urban renewal, and model cities and a package of aid to help set up whole new towns.

The legislation also wraps in far-reaching new provisions setting up a government insurance corporation to help make policies available to homeowners and businessmen in riot-prone areas and to establish a national flood insurance program.

The Housing and Urban Development Department estimates new subsidy plans should help 500,000 families buy homes in the three years covered by the bill and enable 300,000 to rent suitable apartments.

Under the home ownership plan, the government would subsidize the monthly mortgage payments by paying all of the interest charges above 1 per cent in the case of those with the lowest incomes.

Many home buyers now must pay 7 per cent or more. Families with incomes of $3,000 to $8,000 are expected to qualify for the subsidies. Down payments could be as low as $200.

The new rental program also would be based on a subsidy covering all interest charges above 1 per cent on apartment

Group Urges Dirksen to Halt Party

By BRIAN SULLIVAN

Associated Press Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Take it from Dr. Gallup, if the presidential election were held at the end of July, Richard M. Nixon would defeat either Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy or Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey.

Or if you'd rather take it from Lou Harris, either McCarthy or Humphrey would defeat Nixon.

As for Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller, the Gallup Poll has him in a tie with Humphrey and a virtual tie with McCarthy. Harris has Rockefeller beating both Humphrey and McCarthy.

In Miami Beach, Nixon supporters claim they have the Republican nomination assured on the basis of the Gallup Poll. Rockefeller sees himself leading the Democratic presidential hopefuls outside the South and an aide smells a nominating victory.

Now listen to Richard Nixon on a winter Sunday, Feb. 25, in Whitefield, N.H.:

"The polls are not going to determine the Republican presidential nominee."

But the polls have assumed a major role in this turbulent political year, with Rockefeller, for instance, commissioning a major private survey. The preliminary results, he says, show him carrying at least eight of nine states said to be vital to a Republican victory.

Then the Nixon forces seize on the same poll figures from Rockefeller to argue that, because they show Nixon would carry four of the states—New York, California, New Jersey and Ohio—this indicates a national trend to Nixon over McCarthy or Humphrey.

The polls have a built-in margin of error of 3 percentage points. With a sample of 1,500 persons, a poll can be within 3 per cent of accuracy at least 95 per cent of the time.

But the margins of difference on, for example, Nixon and McCarthy in these recent polls translates into enough votes to swing an election.

Gallup has Nixon with 41, McCarthy 36, five points apart. In 1964, about 70.6 million persons voted. Five per cent of that is about 3.5 million votes.

Harris has McCarthy 43, Nixon 35, eight points or 5.6 million votes.

George Gallup, however, says his average deviation from accuracy since 1948 has been 1.7 percentage points. In 1960, Gallup was off less than 1 point.

Harris, who started in 1963, called the 1964 election within 2 points.

The two major polls were in disagreement back in early April, when Gallup had Nixon with 43 per cent to Humphrey's 34 and 41 per cent to McCarthy's 38. Harris had McCarthy with 39 per cent to Nixon's 33 and Humphrey edging Nixon 35-34.

In early May, Gallup found Nixon with 39 per cent to McCarthy's 37, while Harris had McCarthy with 40 and Nixon with 37. By late May, both had Nixon trailing Humphrey and McCarthy in the trial heats.

The polling organizations have long maintained that they are only reporting what people think or feel at the time they are interviewed. Events affect the answers, so many findings may not be directly comparable, they say. But some delegates to the political nominating conventions, faced with conflicting findings, may prefer the crystal ball to the computer.

GOP Interested Termed Better

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The

executive director of the Arkansas Republican party said Wednesday that the ruling interest shown in the Republican primary Tuesday indicated that the people want a "better balance" between the two parties.

Truman Altenbaumer said more contested races at the local level also attributed to the voter turnout increase.

"It is interesting that while our primary gained in participation, the Democratic primary participation decreased," he said.

house mortgages.

The bill contains dozens of other provisions making significant changes in government housing programs. Among them are:

Creation of a National Home Ownership Foundation to encourage public and private organizations to provide more housing for low-income families.

A requirement that urban renewal be reoriented so that at least half of the housing units built are for low and moderate income families in each city and that at least 20 per cent be for low-income families.

have stopped baking pies!

Maybe it's because they discovered Jane Parker Pies... thousands have.

But...you say, "No thanks, there is nothing like a good home-baked pie." We agree...they're great."

But would you believe it if we told you our Jane Parker Pies taste home-baked? Probably not...until you've tried one.

Then you'd discover the crust is short and flaky like your own.

You'd discover the fruit is the kind you'd use... the best...juicy, not stiff with starch.

And if you popped a Jane Parker Pie into the oven and warmed it before serving, you'd discover a pie you'd be proud to call your own.

Are Jane Parker Pies a good reason for shopping A&P? They're one of many.

HELEN HELP US!

by Helen Battel

YOUTH ASKED FOR IT!

This column is for young people, their problems and pleasures, their troubles and fun. As with the rest of Helen Help Us, it welcomes laughs but won't dodge a serious question with a brush off.

Send your teenage questions to YOUTH ASKED FOR IT, care of Helen Help Us in this newspaper.

WILL THE REAL ADULT PLEASE STAND UP?

Dear Helen: I am almost 13. Since my mother died when I was seven, I have lived alone with my father. He is my problem.

For several months he has tried to push me into going out with boys, something I have little interest in. Some of his arguments are:

- "You ought to be ashamed. Some girls younger than you are going steady already." (I'm not a dud—I'm just not ready.)
- "Be like everyone else."
- "Don't be old-fashioned."
- "You are physically mature, so act it."

This one tops them all: "How can I find a wife, with a daughter like you?"

Helen, I want to be a teacher. My father disagrees with my plans. He doesn't want me to get above a "C" in school because "it won't help you be popular and find a boy." My teachers and I went through a lot of trouble getting him to sign my schedule for eight grade because it included some advanced classes.

Cathy, a real swinger, and the same age as I, is his idol, even though she is becoming a wild kid. He keeps asking why I'm not like her: "Why are my skirts longer and marks higher?"

One day he heard that she and I were on opposite sides in a debate on teen-age smoking, drinking and sex. He was furious and asked why I didn't grow up and get with the modern times. What should I do?—P.H.M.

Dear P: Be glad there's ONE mature person in the family—and humor your funny father, but don't listen to him!—H

Dear Helen: I have secretly admired a boy for four months. I made the mistake of telling my mother about him, and now every time I yell at my brother—who deserves it—she says if I don't stop fighting she'll tell everybody I like this boy and then it will get back to him and everything will be ruined, besides getting me teased.

What do you think about this?—BLACKMAILED

Dear Blackmailed: I think your mother needs a refresher course in adult behavior.

Why don't you and your brother settle in and give her a few object lessons?—H

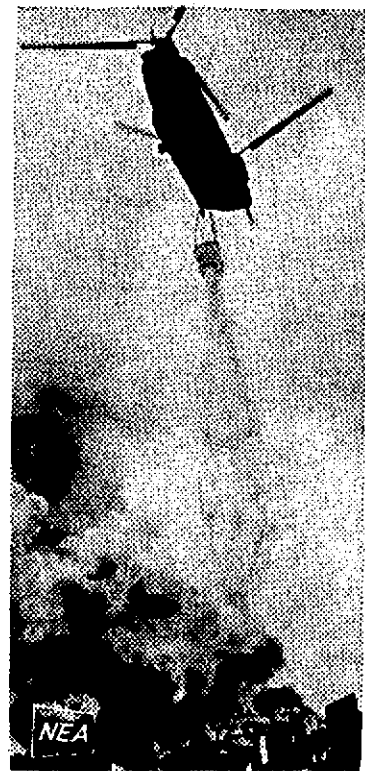

Dear Helen: Much like lonely

"Teen-ager" I had many friends who were boys, but not many real boy friends in high school. I was considered "one of the guys." I didn't like it, but I was treated with more respect, and went more places with the crowd than did the real "dating" girls. It bothered me that I had so many "big brothers," but not one big romance.

Even at college these watchdogs checked out my dates and frightened off a few undersirables. When I complained to my father, his response was as frustrating as it was stock: "Just wait. It will take an older man to appreciate you."

Well, I'm almost 24 and have been married a little over a year. My husband is nearly nine years older—and my Dad was right! What my husband noticed and still appreciates about me, I learned from my big brothers. They taught me to be "one of the guys" without losing my femininity and without being afraid to get my hands dirty or blistered by sailing or working on cars and things. Those fellows taught me more than all the hundreds of dates the other girls had.

Tell "Lonely Teen-ager" to just keep on being a good "kid sister," and learn by it. This is high praise, really—and in the long run, worth it!—JCR

AIRBORNE firefighters in Vietnam utilize a system developed by the U.S. Forest Service. The helicopters use a 450-gallon fiber-glass "aerial fire bucket" which can douse a 120-by-30-foot area. The buckets are filled in a 15-second dipping operation from a nearby stream or river and then flown to the blaze where the water is released.
